

Video Partner Manager

ICE Services Ltd, Kings Cross, London, N1C 4AG

Circa £35,000 per annum depending on experience

Formed by PRS for Music, GEMA and STIM and serving a range of customers, ICE Services Ltd is a new international company designed to simplify the process of digital music licensing across Europe and beyond, ensuring that associated royalties are paid quickly, accurately and effectively to our songwriter, composer and music publisher customers.

We operate in a fast-moving and sophisticated market and are looking for proactive, flexible, energetic people to join us in this exciting new venture. As a "start-up" in a highly fluid and complex market, ICE Services will require all of its employees to adopt a flexible, positive and entrepreneurial approach to the developing requirements of their role and responsibilities.

ICE, the music publishing hub for PRS, GEMA and STIM is seeking a Video Partner Manager to work within the commercial team.

Constantly curious. Constantly questioning. You love data. You love pulling out insight from big data sets. You don't mind helping arrange a meeting as well as writing a presentation for the CEOs of our biggest customers. You use initiative. You have experience working with YouTube's rights management systems and you want to work on what's next in Digital Video.

ICE's mission is to provide best in class and best value solutions for collection societies and music publishers and their song-writer members and clients. We're looking for a full time Video Partner Manager to help manage day-to-day running of our biggest video accounts. You're perfect for this role if...

You're versatile

You love data & analysing data

You live and breathe video and social

You understand how to translate your knowledge of data and video platforms into meaningful insights
